Relics of the Passion Coming March 17th

Passion Relics will be available for veneration in the Prince of Peace main church on March 17th from 5:30pm until 8:30pm. Free will offerings are accepted. This is a bilingual presentation.

Relics coming include: Holy Table; Column of Flagellation; Crown of Thorns; Veil of Veronica (effigy); Holy Nail (replica with filings); True Cross; Bone of St. Longinius; piece of the shroud's burial coverlet.

Theological Basis of Relics

The Church teaches that the bodies of saints and blessed, once living temples of the Holy Spirit and instruments of their heroic virtue, are destined for resurrection and thus worthy of honor. As the Second Vatican Council affirms, "the Saints have been traditionally honored in the Church, and their authentic relics and images held in veneration." This practice echoes early Christian custom and councils like Trent, which condemned denying veneration to relics while prohibiting superstition.

Reliquias de la Pasión próximas el 17 de marzo

Reliquias de la Pasión estará disponible para su veneración en la iglesia principal del Príncipe de la Paz el 17 de marzo de 5:30pm a 8:30pm. Se aceptan ofrendas de libre albedrío. Esta es una presentación bilingüe.

Las reliquias que llegan incluyen: Mesa Santa; Columna de Flagelación; Corona de Espinas; Velo de Verónica (efigie); Clavo Sagrado (réplica con limadura); True Cross; Hueso de San Longinio; Un trozo de la colcha funeraria del Sudario.

Base Teológica de las Reliquias

La Iglesia enseña que los cuerpos de santos y beatos, que antes eran templos vivos del Espíritu Santo e instrumentos de su virtud heroica, están destinados a la resurrección y, por tanto, dignos de honor. Como afirma el Concilio Vaticano II, "los Santos han sido tradicionalmente honrados en la Iglesia, y sus reliquias e imágenes auténticas se han venerado." Esta práctica recuerda a las costumbres y concilios cristianos primitivos como Trento, que condenaban negar la veneración a las reliquias mientras prohibían la superstición.
